Announcements:

President: The next meeting (the Tuesday after Christmas), will be an informal one. Members who attend can share information and experiences, discuss club issues, and focus on the past year's activities and plan for the next year.....The DCM last week at Shandin Hills, hosted by the Yucaipa Club was a resounding success, the theme being of the holiday season, including songs from a wonderful chorale group dressed in Dickens era attire, an appearance by Old St. Nick himself, and the camaraderie was great. The annual Division Directory was distributed. .

John Turner: received a "thank you" card with a photo of Gay and Stephanie on the cover from the CandleLighters organization. The Salvation Army cleaned up and labeled 56 cases of books for children, of which 33.5 cases were donated to the new library area of the Victoria School. One case of books remains for refurbishing by the club members at a later date.

Today's Happy Dollars: By unanimous agreement, the proceeds were presented to our favorite Honorary Member, Flora Lopez, who has contributed in no small measure to make our meetings a success throughout the year making sure that we are awakened to good coffee and great breakfasts. Thank You Flora for your support during the year! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you and your family.

Speaker: Peg Karsick, Executive Director, Loma Linda Chamber of Commerce

Founded in 1956, the Loma Linda Chamber of commerce (LLCC) a 501 (c)6 corporation, has as its mission to create, promote, and preserve a competitive free-enterprise system that facilitates economic growth and development. The LLCC wishes to foster an enhanced public perception of Loma Linda and the Chamber as a business community that believes in and practices ethical values. It is governed by a Board of Directors of which there are 23 members. There are over 230 LLCC members, representing a variety of businesses and individuals. The Chamber is located in the civic center. In addition to promoting businesses in the city, the Chamber also publishes a bi-monthly newsletter, holds a city parade each October, sponsors an annual Business Showcase, golf tournament, annual State of the Community luncheon, annual Community Awards and Installation Dinner, and an weekly morning breakfast meeting from 7:30 to 8:30 at the Civic Center with a $1 donation.

To support businesses, the Chamber has put together information packets for starting a new business in the city, a membership application packet, and a packet containing information regarding local history and business opportunities in Loma Linda.

One does not have to be a resident of Loma Linda to become a member of the LLCC is open to all who are interested in making the city a better place to live. For more information, visit the LLCC at the Civic Center office.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL
